FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOUBLETAP™ TACTICAL POCKET PISTOL NOW SHIPPING

ST. LOUIS, MO (May 2013) - DoubleTap™ Defense is officially shipping the DoubleTap™ Tactical Pocket Pistol (design and utility patents pending) to their distributors. Azimuth Technologies, the manufacturers of the DoubleTap™ pistol, are ramping up production to fill all outstanding orders as quickly as possible. DoubleTap™ Defense Stocking Dealers (with qualified orders) are receiving their free promotional package for their stores.

“The DoubleTap™ Tactical Pocket Pistol has undergone significant improvements since we moved the project to our new manufacturer; making the DoubleTap™ a more reliable, simpler and less-parts-to-go-wrong type of concealed carry,” Raymond B. Kohout, DoubleTap™ inventor stated. “We have production capacity to quickly fill all orders and many anxious customers to appease, but we are certain, beyond a doubt, that this newest version is of higher quality and extremely reliable.”

Significant improvements to the DoubleTap™ include:

- Interchangeable barrels (9mm and .45ACP) using a M16 style push pin that is now ambidextrous
- Enhanced pistol grip with new “FRAG” pattern inspired by the fragmentation grenade
- Improved, easier to use thumb-latch
- Patent pending trigger system simplified to only four major components and featuring dual hammers for extra reliability
- Double-action, sequentially fired mechanical trigger system has double-strike capability
- Ported barrels available for both the 9mm and .45 ACP to reduce recoil and muzzle flip

The DoubleTap™ Aluminum non-ported model has an MSRP of $499.00. The Aluminum ported model’s MSRP is $569.00. The MSRP for the DoubleTap™ Titanium non-ported model is $729.00 and the ported model is $799.00. Caliber conversion kits in the non-ported version have been lowered to $199.00 and the ported kits lowered to $269.00. DoubleTap™ Defense also sells a variety of accessories to complement the DoubleTap™ Tactical Pocket pistol.
